THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From SATURDAY June 23, to SATURDAY June 30, 1739.

[The following are the ſeparate Articles belonging to the Convention.]

Firſt ſeparate Article.

WHEREAS it has been agreed by the firſt Article of the Convention, ſigned this Day, between the Miniſters Plenipotentiaries of Great Britain and Spain, that there ſhall be named on the Part of their Britannick and Catholick Majeſties reſpectively, immediately after the ſigning the aboveſaid Convention, two Miniſters Plenipotentiaries, who ſhall meet at Madrid within the Space of Six Weeks, to be reckoned from the Day of the Exchange of the Ratifications; their ſaid Majeſties, to the End that no Time may be loſt in removing, by a ſolemn Treaty, which is to be concluded for that Purpoſe, all Cauſes of Complaint for the Future, and in eſtabliſhing thereby, a perfect good Underſtanding, and a laſting Friendſhip, between the two Crowns, have named, and do by theſe Preſents name, viz. his Britannick Majeſty, Benjamin Keene Eſq; his ſaid Majeſty's Miniſter Plenipotentiary to his Catholick Majeſty, and his Abraham Caſtres, Eſq; his ſaid Britannick Majeſty's Conſul General at the Court of his Catholick Majeſty, his Plenipotentiaries for that Purpoſe; and his Catholick Majeſty Don Joſeph de la Quintana, his Counſellor in the ſupreme Council of the Indies, and Don Stephen Joſeph de Abaria, Knight of the Order of Calatrava, Counſellor in the ſame Council, and Superintendant of the Chamber of Accounts who ſhall be immediately inſtructed to begin the Conferences: And whereas it has been agreed by the 3d Article of the Convention ſigned this Day, that the Sum of Ninety-five thouſand Pounds Sterling, is due, on the Part of Spain, as a Balance to the Crown and Subjects of Great-Britain, after Deduction made of the Demands of the Crown and Subjects of Spain; his Catholick Majeſty ſhall cauſe to be paid at London, within the Term of four Months, to be reckoned from the Day of the Exchange of the Ratifications, or ſooner if it be poſſible, in Money, the abovementioned Sum of Ninety-five Thouſand Pounds Sterling, to ſuch Perſons as ſhall be authorized on the Part of his Britannick Majeſty to receive it.

Second ſeparate Article.

WHEREAS the underwritten Miniſters Plenipotentiaries of their Britannick and Catholick Majeſties have this Day ſigned, by Virtue of full Powers from their Kings their Maſters for that Purpoſe, a Convention for ſettling and adjuſting all the Demands, on each Side, of the Crowns of Great Britain and Spain, on Account of Seizures made, Ships taken, &c. and for the Payment of a Balance that is thereby due to the Crown of Great-Britain; it is declared, that the Ship called the Santa which was taken on the 14th Day of April 1738, as ſhe was coming out from the Iſland of Antigua, by a Spaniſh Guarda Coſta, and carried to Porto Rico, is not comprehended in the aforeſaid Convention; and his Catholick Majeſty promiſes, that the ſaid Ship and its Cargo ſhall be forthwith reſtored, or the juſt Value thereof to the lawful Owners; provided that, previous to the Reſtitution of the ſaid Ship the Santa, the Perſon or Perſons intereſted therein do give Security at London to the Satisfaction of Don Thomas Geraldino, his Catholick Majeſty's Miniſter Plenipotentiary, to abide by what ſhall be decided thereupon by the Miniſters Plenipotentiaries of their ſaid Majeſties, that have been named for finally ſettling, according to the Treaties, the Diſputes which remain to be adjuſted between the two Crowns; and his Catholick Majeſty agrees, as far as ſhall depend upon him, that the abovementioned Ship the Santa ſhall be referred to the Examination and Deciſion of the Plenipotentiaries; his Britannick Majeſty promiſes likewiſe to refer, as far as ſhall depend upon him, to the Deciſion of the Plenipotentiaries, the Brigantine Sta Thereſa, ſeiz'd in the Port of Dublin in Ireland, in the Year 1733. And the ſaid underwritten Miniſters Plenipotentiaries declare by theſe Preſents, that the 3d Article of the Convention ſigned this Day, does not extend, nor ſhall be conſtrued to extend to any Ships or Effects that may have been taken or ſeized ſince the 10th Day of December 1737, or may be hereafter taken or ſeized; in which Caſes Juſtice ſhall be done according to the Treaties, as if the aforeſaid Convention had not been made; it being however underſtood, that this relates only to the Indemnification and Satisfaction to be made for the Effects ſeized, or Prizes taken, but that the Deciſion of the Caſes, which may happen, in order to remove all Pretext for Diſpute, is to be referred to the Plenipotentiaries to be determined by them according to the Treaties.

Theſe ſeparate Articles ſhall have the ſame Force as if inſerted Word for Word in the Convention ſigned this Day: And ſhall be ratified in the ſame Manner.

In Witneſs whereof, We the underwritten Miniſters Plenipotentiaries of his Britannick Majeſty, and of his Catholick Majeſty, by Virtue of our full Powers, have ſigned the Preſent ſeparate Articles, and have cauſed the Seals of our Arms to be affixed thereto. At the Pardo, Jan. 14, 1739.

BENJAMIN KEENE,
SEBASTIAN DE LA QUADRA.

The Convention and ſeparate Articles, were ratify'd under the Hand of his Britannick Majeſty, Jan. 24; and of his Catholick Majeſty January 25. N.S. 1739, and were concluded purſuant to full Powers dated at St. James's Nov. 9, 1738, at the Pardo, Jan. 10, 1739.

The Convention and foregoing ſeparate Articles, with the full Powers for ſigning them, and the Ratifications, have been laid before both Houſes of Parliament, for their Conſideration, and are ſince publiſhed by Authority, in French, Spaniſh and Engliſh, and part in Latin. As being relevant, ly ſuſpected by the Patriots that all the Papers relating to this Convention were not brought upon the Tapis, we hear that a certain Perſon of great Rank did acknowlage, being cloſely preſs'd to it, that his Catholic Majeſty had ſigned another Paper, which only concerning the South-Sea Company, it was not thought neceſſary to be exhibited; this Circumſtance raiſed the Curioſity of all People, and as the late L—d B—ke is ſaid to have obtained a Copy of the Convention, or at leaſt all the Articles, before it was ſigned in form; ſo the follwing has been handed about as a Copy of the Declaration made on the Part of the King of Spain, before he ratify'd the Convention.

DON Sebaſtian de la Quadra, Counſellor, and firſt Secretary of State of his Catholick Majeſty, and his firſt Plenipotentiary for the Convention which is treating with the King of England, by Order of his Sovereign, and in Conſequence of his repeated Memorials and Conferences that have paſs'd with Don Benjamin Keene, Miniſter Plenipotentiary of his Britannick Majeſty, and having agreed therein with reciprocal Accord, that the preſent Declaration ſhall be made as the eſſential and preciſe Means to overcome the ſo much debated Diſputes, and, in order that the ſaid Convention may be ſigned, does declare, in due Form, that his Catholick Majeſty reſerves to himſelf, in its full Force, the Right of being able to ſuſpend the Aſſiento of Negroes, and for diſpatching the neceſſary Orders for the Execution thereof, in caſe the Company does not ſubject herſelf to pay, within a ſhort Term the 68,000 l. Sterling, which ſhe has confeſs'd is owing on the Duty of Negroes, according to the Regulation of 52 d. per Dollar, or on the Profits of the Ship Caroline; and likewiſe declare, that under the Validity and Force of this Proteſt, the ſigning of the ſaid Convention may be proceeded on, and in no other Manner. Wherefore, upon this firm Suppoſition, and that it may not be eluded on any Motive or Pretext whatſoever, his Catholick Majeſty has been induced thereto. Pardo, 10th of Jan. 1739.
